

a carnival of feminist cultural activism

3-5 March 2011
York, UK

We welcome proposals for a three day conference and festival of academic papers, presentations, exhibitions & workshops spanning film, visual arts, crafts, music, theatre, comedy, print & digital fiction, and much more.

The event is designed to inspire, celebrate & challenge understandings of women, grassroots art and politics.

We ask: can feminist art change the world, and if so, how? and we invite responses from activists, artists and academics.

Please send 300-word proposals for papers, panels, exhibitions, workshops and performances, plus a 50-word biography by 31 October 2010 to:
